Hello Everyone

I've made some changes to the Website this month - you can now download PDF copies of Newsletters so if you lose yours, or you want to copy and save it, it's now really easy to do so. I think this is a big improvement and hope you agree. It's also a necessary time saving arrangement for me as it's much quicker to attach the PDFs rather than having to enter all the articles individually as I was doing. Check it out and let me know what you think. www.tenews.co.uk

We've decided that our next fundraiser is to be a Murder Mystery on Sat 19th Oct. More details nearer the time, but put the date in your diaries!

Angela has found that although she wants to continue to contribute to the Newsletter, with work commitments increasing she cannot give the time necessary for taking over the Editor role at present. Thanks for giving it a go Angela and we'll be pleased to continue including your interesting historical and other bits and pieces. I'm happy to carry on for the foreseeable future so we're not currently looking for anyone else although we'd welcome anyone who'd like to join our committee and learn the ropes.

Jeanette

Email: tenews@uwclub.net Tel: 01304 826386

We welcome all contributions to the content of the Newsletter, but please remember that the deadline date is 8pm on the 15th of the month. NOTE: You should be aware that articles are also published on the website tenews.co.uk - please inform us if you want any part of your article withheld from that particular medium

I-Tunes Sensation in our Midst!

Little did I know when I went for my acupuncture that I would uncover the news story of the month! Here in little old Temple Ewell was hiding the musical genius that is our own Dr Tony Stellan.

He explained that inspired by his mother's frustration at not being able to get up and dance at her 85th birthday party, he composed a song to encourage and aid movement with a simple message: "we can't turn back the clock but with help we can still make our bodies rock". Next a friend was enlisted to help write the music and singer Eithne Browne was employed to perform itand so 'My Zimmer' was born. Sadly, it seems that 'mum' was not over-impressed - that's mothers for you! But I've listened to it and it's really quite a catchy number.

Anyway, it's now being sold on I-Tunes, Spotify, Amazon MP3 etc. hoping to raise money for local dementia care homes - there's a link on our website (and the Abbey Practice one) if you'd like to hear it and perhaps buy it for your aging relatives or anyone else who may enjoy the Abba-like vibe.

District Councillor

After a very cold and wet winter it is hard to believe we are rapidly approaching the longest day of the year already with April passing in the blink of an eye. However during that month the Government made some changes to the Benefit Cap.

There was a cap on the amount of benefits a working age household can claim as from the 15th April, starting with four pilot areas, two in North and two in South London. The idea behind this capping is to ensure that families on benefits are not better off compared to those who are working. The cap will be gradually introduced through out the country from July to September 2013. The cap will be calculated on the average income of a working family and the amounts are set out as follows:

£350 per week, for single adults and £500 per week for couples, with or without children or lone parents.

In relation to the 'capping', some benefits will be disregarded when calculating the family's income. These will be: Bereavement payment, Council Tax benefit/Localized Council Tax Support, Discretionary housing payments, Social Fund Payments, Pension Credits, Residency Order Payments, Statutory adoption/maternity/paternity/sick pay, Winter Fuel Allowance.

Some families will be exempt from the capping if an individual, a partner, or children they are responsible for (living with them in the household) and are entitled to any of the following:- Working Tax Credit, Attendance Allowance, The Support Component of Employment and Support Allowance, War widow/widower pension, Disability Living Allowance or to be replaced soon by PIP, Personal Independence Payment, Industrial Injuries Benefit, Armed Forces Compensation Scheme, War Pension Scheme payments/War disablement pension.

There will be a grace period where the cap will not be applied for 39 weeks to those who have been in continuous employment for the previous 12 months. Should you have any questions, on how the benefit cap will or could affect you ,then contact the DWP helpline on 0845 605 7064.

State Pension

The implementation of the proposed single tier state pension rate of £144 per week will be rolled out earlier than planned with the new system anticipated by 2016. This means anyone reaching state pension age before the new systems takes effect will receive their pension under the current system. Anyone reaching state pension age after the new single tier system starts will be subjected to a calculation under today's rules and a further calculation under the new rules. This should provide transitional protection for those reaching state pension age soon after the introduction of the new system. Effectively those babies born from 1950 onwards will receive up to £144 per week and those up to 1949 will be on the old rate of £115 per week.

Finally, a male/female team have been cold calling, targeting the elderly stating they are from Age Concern, having gained entry, he steals money/medication whilst she keeps elderly person talking. First clue, Age Concern is now Age UK, refuse these criminals entry, Age UK never cold calls. Obtain as much description of offenders as possible and call police IMMEDIATELY.

Cllr Geoffrey Lymer

MEDIEVAL MERRIMENT

As you can see by our advert (on page 10) for the 10th of August we are organising a fun day on the field. This is to commemorate the meeting between King John and an ambassador from the Pope in 1213. There was a very important document signed, that was the forerunner to the Magna Carta. This has been documented as being signed in a building on the hill overlooking Temple Ewell. How wonderful that our village was so important!!

We are planning our own celebration of this marvellous event. As you can see by our advert we are planning a fun filled day. There will be a pageant celebrating our local history followed by games. We need you to register your team, family or individual names to take part. Teams should be made up of 4 adults and 2 children. Please register at the Fox. There is no fee for participation but names are required in advance.

In addition there will be a prize for the best dressed gazebo in medieval style. Google it!!! There is a childrens fancy dress which is advertised elsewhere in the newsletter but nominations for adult 'Village Idiot' can be made anonymously at the Fox or Lornas in a sealed envelope! Applications are to be done in good faith and fun. Applicants will be advised in advance to ensure their good humour!

Later in the evening there will be a band and at 9pm the beacon will be lit followed by a fireworks display. A barbeque is available for refreshments during the day but feel free to bring your own supplies. You will also need to bring your own chairs, tables and gazebos.

Further details will follow next month. If you have any questions beforehand please speak to Alyson Grayson, Alison Worton, Amanda Lomas, Glen Mousley or Yvonne Sacker.

Plans are well underway for a fantastic day. Alyson

We offer a small rural school with a good team of professionals and well behaved children. Children are good at caring for each other, learning is fun and each child is developed as an individual. We aim to equip children with essential skills that they can apply throughout their life.

OFSTED 2011 confirmed our ability to differentiate learning well for both age and ability. 'Pupils continue to make good progress through the school so that their attainment by the time they move to secondary school is generally above average'.

'There is a very positive engagement with parents and carers, with many commenting specifically on how well their child settled and is progressing'.

We have 'Share a class' sessions six times a year, where parents are invited in to learn alongside their children.

As a 'South London reared' youngster, my idea of heaven was a family holiday staying with my 'much better off' aunt and uncle who had moved to live on the Sussex coast and, when it was all over and I started moaning, my late mother would always say, 'But isn't it so lovely to be home?' Rather ungratefully, I would think 'No, it isn't!'

Reminiscing with family recently, we recalled the wedding just over 5 years ago of my nephew at a church near Ilford. The service was a stunning and moving Nuptial Mass in their Roman Catholic church and I was privileged to be asked to preach and my son to sing. However, on the way there we became gridlocked in an awful traffic jam and had little time to 'take-in' the hotel we had been booked into. At around midnight after a super reception for about 200 people we began our walk back to the hotel and, probably fortified by the fruit of the vine, bravely endeavoured to break up a couple having a nasty scuffle (not guests!) on the pavement – fortunately the police soon arriving to take over. As we arrived at the hotel we realised we needed to make our way past huge bouncers and numerous 'oik-ish' individuals making their way into a nightclub over which we realised our accommodation was located! Our over-heated rooms pounded from the sound beneath until 3am!

Attending Mass at the same church in the morning, we all then partook of a 'just passable' Sunday lunch in a horrid local pub (so unlike our super Fox and Bell) before setting off for Kent. We had woken – if we had slept – to 3 inches of ‘beginning of April’ snow and as we arrived back in the county so it arrived here with some vengeance. It was an unpleasant and tiring journey and, as my mother would have agreed, ‘It was so lovely to be home!’

For the last 3 years of his earthly life it seems that, whilst Jesus had no particular home, it is clear that the times he shared in the home of the special friends he loved (Mary, Martha and Lazarus) were so important to him as he ‘made his home with them’.

Jesus said (John 14:23) ‘Those who love me will keep, my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them’. The TV bombards us with images of beautiful homes, but to my mind the best homes are simply places of security where love is offered and shared, and especially so when the commitment of our time and energy to create such a home makes room for the fulfilment of Jesus’ promise to dwell with us.

Fr. Paul

Sunday Club

The older children went to St Radigunds Abbey Farm for a Rogation Sunday service.

We planted seeds and blessed the fields for a fruitful harvest. Who knows, when our seeds have grown we may have enough to make our own flour!

All the children did well in the Pentecost Sunday service and sang with the choir. The birthday cake for the world-wide Church’s birthday was much enjoyed.

Any children under the age of 11 are welcome to join either Bubbles or Sunday Club at 10.30am in the Millennium Hall during term time.

Coffee Morning

Coffee Morning friends were very sad to lose their dear friend Les Pilcher who had recently passed away. Les had joined us every week for many years and we send our love and prayers to Betty and the family.

Coffee morning dates for June are 6th and 20th.

At our May meeting our speaker Eileen Jennings gave us an amusing and interesting account of her arduous climb to the summit of Mt Kilimanjaro, no mean feat for a lady in her 60's when she achieved this.

Resolutions for our AGM in Cardiff later in the year were debated.

Our next meeting will be on 13th June, visitors welcome.

Friday Club

In April we went to Margate to the Winter Gardens to see the Variety Show. This is always enjoyed by our members. The gags gave some of us belly laughs, and all in all it was a lovely afternoon.

May 4th we were invited to the Village Hall by Marilyn Holness and the Youth Club to an afternoon tea - and what a tea it was! Assorted sandwiches, cakes and scones with tea and coffee flowing better than the stream in the village. There was a raffle with lots of prizes that had been donated and individual table prizes. What more could we want? The Youth Club put on a lovely dance routine to entertain us, which they devised themselves. A big thank you goes to you all for a truly wonderful Saturday afternoon. When will the next one be we ask?

We at the Friday Club are now getting ready for the summer activities so watch this space.

If you would like to come along to see what we get up to you will be very welcome.

Well that's all from me for now, take care.

Yvonne

Les Pilcher

Thank you so much for all the lovely cards and messages of sympathy on the loss of my dear husband, Les.

Although Les was born in River he took Temple Ewell to his heart when he moved here after our marriage in 1951. He became involved in many activities in the village and had many happy memories, especially in his later years when he joined the Bowls Club which helped him remain active for a few years longer.

It is really appreciated that Les was so well thought of by so many in Temple Ewell.

Here comes the Summer!

As Players take their summer break before the autumn production we look back fondly on the very busy year we had! As I write we are currently finishing the final rehearsal for 'Free and Easy' written by Bill Cronshaw and directed by Cindy Tuson and Rachel White. The cast and crew have worked extremely hard to bring the spirit of the 60's alive with a fun and sometimes exhausting musical! Thank you to everyone involved and thank you to our loyal audiences who have supported us. We hope you enjoyed the show and we look forward to seeing you in September! Rachel

The Temple Ewell and District Association outing to Pashley Manor Gardens 'Tulip Festival' on Saturday 27th April 2013 was well attended by 48 of our members, their family and friends.

Sadly we were greeted with the news that only about 25% of the tulips were in bloom because of the unusually cold spring we have endured this year. However there was a display of cut tulips by Bloms. Luckily the weather was kind and we walked in the sunshine marvelling at how well kept the gardens were and the stunning sculptures round every corner. There is a lovely contrast between the beautiful walled gardens with the immaculate vegetable plot and the gorgeous woodland walk around the lake. All that and the delicious coffee and cake made the day very relaxing and enjoyable so thanks to John Philpott for all his time and effort in arranging the trip.

We have arranged a coach trip for our members and friends to R H S Gardens Wisley on the 7 September 2013 cost is only £13.00 If you are interested contact John on 822954 or Edith on 824787 for details. Trevor Barlow

Temple Ewell C of E Primary School

Recently our sporting teams have been very busy competing in netball, swimming, football and tennis tournaments. In all of these tournaments we were very proud of the children – the way they played both on and off the sporting field.

The “postponed” Easter Fayre took place at the end of April. Luckily this time the weather was more favourable and the event was a great success – with over £500 profit being raised.

As you may have heard the school had a successful Ofsted inspection in March, and has now been graded a “good school with aspects of outstanding”. The report widely praised the school and recognised the consistently good teaching, exemplary behaviour and strong leadership. The inspection was clearly a positive experience and this grading reflects the tremendous hard work everyone; staff, governors, children and parents have put into the school. Now we start the journey to “outstanding”.

Parking in DODS Mill Car Park

Unfortunately we have to withdraw the use of both our car parks during the evenings with immediate effect so would appreciate it therefore if villagers would park elsewhere after 6pm each day. You are welcome to use it during the day until 6pm. Thank you.

Please note that you may be asked to move your vehicle at other times where the Mill has been booked after the Newsletter print deadline.

Thank you in advance for your co-operation. Mike Brodie

Youth Club

On the 4th May Youth Club put on a tea afternoon with lots of cups of tea, sandwiches, scones and loads of cakes and at the end of the afternoon we counted up the money and we have raise around £137.00.

Youth Club have not yet decided what to do with the money.

The pictures below show the over 60's and us really enjoying the afternoon.

Village Folk

Peregrine Falcons, Harris Hawk, Merlin, Owls..... This month, you would be forgiven for thinking that I had stepped way outside Temple Ewell into perhaps Wingham Wildlife Park or Howletts Zoo. No, remarkably these species and more can be found at the centre of our village and are ably cared for by this month's guest, Conan Taylor.

Conan (known as Con) has lived within our midst for the past 14 years. From a young age he has always had a collection of pets and birds of prey, and brought them all here with him when he moved to the village. I will reveal the majority of his charges later but let me start by giving you some background information.

Born in Bunkers Hill, Dover 52 years ago, his mum was an avid Conan Doyle fan (author of the Sherlock Holmes tales) - hence the rather unusual name. He has one brother and two sisters, all of whom still live locally. His father is an avid naturalist plus wildlife artist. When Conan was young, he was always so happy and excited to tag along with his father when he went bird watching or for long nature rambles, usually returning with an addition to his pet collection of snakes and frogs etc. As a youngster, he fondly recalls once catching several trout in the stream under the bridge in Temple Ewell, which the family then had for tea.

Having attended Temple Ewell Primary School for a year, he then transferred to the newly built Whitfield Primary and subsequently to Archers Court Secondary School where he left at age 16. As both his parents were farm workers, it seemed only natural that Conan's first job would also be in farming and so he was employed as a pig man at Watersend Farm. He left after two years to train as a trawlerman working from the port at Ramsgate and trawling for sea bass. He mainly went out daily, fishing from dawn to dusk and occasionally the crew would be at sea for as many as three days with a cargo hold half full of ice. They fished the Thames Estuary or Goodwin Sands where he was once rescued after his fishing vessel sprung a leak. With the nearest rescue vessel some 10 miles away, the situation became more urgent after the captain injured himself while trying to repair the hole and the boat was filling up fast with water. Fortunately however, a training helicopter crew heard the distress call on their radio and managed to locate them. They were then able to direct the rescue boat to the scene - by which time the fishing vessel had all but disappeared under water. A real close call.

After some six years, Conan transferred to the Harbour Board where after passing the relevant courses, he qualified as a Mate. He has been working there for some 20 years now and his tug boat duties include steering cargo ships, ferries and cruise ships into the Port of Dover.

Conan met his lovely (and very understanding..) wife Fran while she was out riding in a field in Whitfield and Conan was in search of one of his hawks who had suddenly flown out of his car. They have lived happily here together in the village for the last 14 years and thankfully, Fran is also an avid animal lover (not much option really). They have five children - all living nearby - one of whom is studying in Liverpool to become a vet. Has to be something in the blood.

I will try to recount the various birds and pets I saw when I visited their home. 2 Peregrine Falcons, 1 Merlin, 1 Perlin (half Merlin half Peregrine), an absolutely adorable Little Owl called Douglas, a Harris Hawk, 4 pairs of canaries, 3 pointer dogs, a Jack Russell, 3 horses (Fran's) and (currently) 5 ferrets. Whew - feeding time must take an age.

Conan has given demonstrations for some charity shows in the past but prefers that the birds of prey are left to do what comes naturally to them. Consequently, he attends sessions all over the country and never ceases to be amazed at the power and technical ability of the birds in flight - especially when hunting. He takes them out to exercise every day of the hawking season.

To date, he has bred three litters of pointers and has successfully managed to breed a Merlin and a Perlin which gave a brood of chicks which were 3/4 Merlin and 1/4 Perlin - the only known combination ever successfully bred in the world.

My thanks to both Conan and Fran for their hospitality and permitting me to have a glimpse of their large and unusual collection of animals.

Temple Ewell Parish Council

Broken Street Light – Lower Road – KHS has failed to mend a broken light after being informed on numerous occasions over a seven month period, therefore the Parish Councillors have no alternative but to escalated this issue and a send a letter of concern to John Burr the Director of Kent Highways.

Lamp post Dragon Wood Car Park – The Clerk has written to Keith Watson, DDC and provided copies of correspondence regarding the Temple Ewell lighting column located in the main village car park from 2004. The correspondence confirms that an agreement was made for the lighting to be maintained & serviced by DDC at the time of the George & Dragon development. Awaiting a reply.

The vacant allotments have been filled. Eight plots have been rotovated to make planting easier at the beginning of the season. In the past new tenants often have a difficult time of transforming plots on derelict sites into flourishing allotments. It is hoped that this will also help to reduce the turnover of allotment holders.

KCC Termination of Licence for Use of Parish Council's Playing Fields – Andrew White, KCC wrote to the Parish Council informing them that Temple Ewell CE Primary School will be converting to an Academy on 1st June 2013. The School will be maintained by an Academy Trust, who in this instance will be the Canterbury Diocesan Board of Education. The County Council will therefore have no need for the benefit of the licence with effect from 1st June 2013. In accordance with Item 2 (a) of the licence agreement, received on 15th February 2010, six month's notice needs to be served to terminate the Licence and Mr White has asked for an indication as to whether the Parish Council would accept the County Council's licence to be deemed as terminated with effect from 1st June 2013, or six months after the date of this e-mail, i.e. 4th October 2013. The Parish Councillors agreed to consider a new licence on the same terms at their next meeting on 28th May 2013. Clarification is also required for the 2013/14 payment details e.g Full year paid by the academy or pro rata with KCC.

The Dover Society are taking a leading role in the River Dour Steering Group where, despite cuts in funding, monthly litter clearances continue enabled, at least for one more year, by financial assistance primarily from DTC. To assist grant applications for funding they have agreed that this Group should come under the Society's 'umbrella' as a registered charity. TDS are keen to work with the University of Kent, encouraging students to visit the River Dour for field trips.

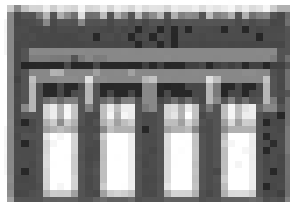

The agenda and minutes are displayed on the Parish Council notice board by the village shop, Southdown Stores and on the Parish Council Web-site. Contact details for councillors are on the website:

Letters to the Editor

We would like to hear from you. What do you want information on? Need help with something? Want to comment on a local issue? This is the place to do it! Send to the Editor - details on page 1

Dear Editor

With the weather bucking it's ideas up in the last few weeks, I've got out on my bike and had some glorious rides around the country lanes as far away as Thanet on occasions. My route has taken me through some lovely villages with beautiful houses and cottages which would not be out of place on post cards. I've thought on occasions that I could be happy living in some of these villages and houses.

However arriving back home in Temple Ewell, I soon revise my ideas. None of these villages are as well placed as we are in Temple Ewell set in an area of outstanding natural beauty with fabulous views from various parts of the village. Add to this a railway station within walking distance and a regular bus service to Dover Canterbury and Folkestone. Then of course there is one of the best pubs in Kent where a choice of beer and drinks and food comes with a warm welcome. A village shop and post office with a range of goods on offer as well as daily papers and fresh bread. You can even get your dry cleaning dropped off there, I discovered the other day. Hair cuts at Lorna's are on offer and the Garage seems to be doing ok where you can get your car spruced up.

The village school plays an important part of village life and the Church stands there as it has for over eight hundred years providing for the spiritual needs of Christians. As for the atmosphere, I never go to the shop without I find someone to pass the time of day and sometimes stay and have a chat. Village activities are well supported think what we got up to last year for the Jubilee celebrations.

No wonder houses change hands quickly.

Looks like we're going to be staying put!

Chris Barnett,
London Road,
Temple Ewell

Dear Editor

A reminder of the trip to Calais to visit the Church of Notre Dame and Museum of Lace on 7th September.....

Book soon as space is limited for what should be a very nice day.

Below is a rough guide to our itinerary:

It is planned to be in Calais by 10am local time which will allow time to sample some of the local produce at the market, which takes place on Saturdays, followed by our tour of the church at 11am.

Between noon and 2pm free time for lunch at one of the many brasseries or restaurants nearby or a picnic lunch is an option 2pm approx. The Musee de Dentelle – Lace Museum.

To end the day a surprise ‘mystery tour’!

The date of 7th September is confirmed and payment of £30 per person by the end of July would be appreciated please.

Further details of pick up times and places will be notified a little later.
