Hello everyone

I hope you've all had a lovely summer - and let's hope we have a long one that continues well into September and, dare I say it, even October?

As promised in your last Newsletter, we are promoting Kapow Theatre Company once more. Last time Kevin and Abi brought a fantastic children's show to the village hall, but on 4th October their show for older audiences is booked to appear. I do urge you to come along and see them, it promises to be a hilarious night. See the spread on pages 10 and 11 for full details including where to get tickets.

Our AGM is in the Lower Village Hall on Tuesday 7th October at 7.30pm - all are welcome to attend. We are looking for new committee members too if you would like to get involved in producing the Newsletter.

CONTRIBUTORS PLEASE NOTE - Due to my upcoming holiday the deadline for the October Newsletter will be 12th September at 8pm.

Temple Ewell Newsletter Prize for Citizenship at T E School 2014

Angel Rickard was the worthy winner this year of the annual Prize for Citizenship which is donated by the Newsletter. Angel certainly lives up to her lovely name.

Her teachers say that Angel is a happy girl who works with enthusiasm and determination in all activities. She plays an active role in the class and school community, contributing valuable ideas and considering the opinions of others.

Angel is vice captain for Temple House and is an excellent role model for the younger children; encouraging and supporting them around the school and at play-times. Angel has a mature, sensible approach, and values the ideas and opinions of others, as well as contributing her own suggestions.

Angel is thoughtful and able to consider world issues in a mature and thorough manner. She greatly deserves to be awarded the Citizenship prize. Well done.

Friday Club

Hope you have all enjoyed the good summer, long may it continue.

At the Friday Club we have continued as usual enjoying our Friday afternoons with a raffle and games of bingo.

On the 1st of August we trotted down to The Fox and enjoyed a sunny afternoon in the gardens. Alyson served us up hot dogs with lashings of fried onions; we all enjoyed these for our lunch. Later we played skittles and that caused quite a laugh. We had two winners namely Mike Matcham and Harry Foottit and both of them received a £5 prize each.

We also held our raffle and had a game of bingo. The afternoon was enjoyed by all who came and many asked "can we do this again?" It was very pleasant to be in the fresh air mingling and chatting.

Our next event will be late September when we celebrate Frank Herbert & Harry Foottit's 80th birthdays with a fish & chip lunch. I am really looking forward to that.

Sadly we have lost two long standing members recently, Mrs Ivy Jeffry and Mrs Joan Holliman. Both were committee members of the club for many years and will be sadly missed. Our condolences go to both their families. R.I.P

Until next time, take care and keep well.

Yvonne

Temple Ewell Players

As I write this Temple Ewell Players have just completed our Spring production of Half a Sixpence, directed and produced by Cindy Tuson, and it's safe to say we're all thoroughly exhausted! A massive thank you to the entire cast and crew for all their hard work to make this production such a success. We've had such fantastic feedback from our audience members and hope that everyone enjoyed it as much as we did performing this energetic and fun show. Two of the cast were even on Elaine Page's Radio Two show to promote the show on her 'Break a Leg' section, we've gone national!

We take a well earned break now until panto season (oh no we don't, oh yes we do!), for which we are still deciding upon which script to choose. Keep your eyes peeled in next month's Newsletter for our panto announcement! Whichever it is, it's sure to be an entertaining!

Fresh from a sell out world tour to Canada, America,
New Zealand and Hong Kong!

Seven Ages explores the idea that we go through seven stages in life. From infancy - through love and wisdom - to growing old disgracefully!

Essentially a comedy - with touching moments in it - Seven Ages premiered at the Edinburgh Festival ; garnering 5 star reviews and achieving a sell out run. Transferring to London's West End, it received a standing ovation on it's opening and closing nights. Since then, it has been seen at over 300 venues across the UK and had sell out performances all over the world.

Seven Ages seeks to explore two of the most important questions in life: why am I here? and what's important in my life?, whilst simultaneously making you laugh. Whatever stage of life you're at, you'll love this show. Suitable for 6 - 106 year olds.

What the press have said:

Tomlinson reminds me of a young Robin Williams due to the electricity and enthusiasm he exudes. Definitely one of the most enjoyable feel-good shows around!

Parmount Comedy Channel *****

Heartwarming comedy theatre that all the family can - and certainly will -enjoy.

Evening Standard *****

Wonderfully inventive! Refreshingly honest. Demand a ticket.

See him when you can!

Comedy Magazine *****

Hilarious! Tomlinson has his audience laughing uncontrollingly!

Whatever your age, see Seven Ages!

We offer a small rural school with a good team of professionals and well behaved children. Children are good at caring for each other, learning is fun and each child is developed as an individual. We aim to equip children with essential skills that they can apply throughout their life.

OFSTED 2011 confirmed our ability to differentiate learning well for both age and ability. 'Pupils continue to make good progress through the school so that their attainment by the time they move to secondary school is generally above average'.

'There is a very positive engagement with parents and carers, with many commenting specifically on how well their child settled and is progressing'.

We have 'Share a class' sessions six times a year, where parents are invited in to learn alongside their children.

September services – to which we warmly welcome you. Our Sunday Club meets every Sunday during term time at 10.30am

Sunday 7th	Lydden Patronal Festival 10.30 a.m. (No service TE) Special Preacher – Fr. Keith Fazzani SSC, Festival cake and wine
Sunday 14th	Holy Cross Day Parish Eucharist 10.30 a.m.
Sunday 21st	St. Matthew, Apostle & Evangelist Parish Eucharist 10.30 a.m.
Sunday 28th	St. Michael and All Angels (29th) Parish Eucharist 10.30 a.m. Service of Rededication & Thanksgiving for Baptism 3.00 p.m.

For times of the Daily Offices and midweek services, please refer to the Church Notice Board.

I think it was as far back as mid-July, I recall reading in my newspaper that Selfridges (or maybe one of the other large London department stores) already had a selection of Christmas goods on sale! However, for very different reasons I admit I have had going round in my head the final line of verse 3 of Edmund Sears (1810-76) well known Christmas carol 'It came upon a midnight clear' and which protests 'O hush the noise, ye men of strife, and hear the angels sing'!

The angels rejoiced at the birth and gift to humanity of a precious child who was God's own Son. Yet born into a world of violence and cruelty, how soon the Holy Family were fleeing from their homeland. All life is God's gift and every child so infinitely precious, so how heart-breaking (as I write) are the reports coming from Gaza and from among the Yazidi people of Iraq and elsewhere. The fear and pain on the faces of children caught up in such evil violence is simply dreadful. From Christ's words recorded in Scripture, we know every child has a place in his heart and in the kingdom of heaven, and until, please God, the 'men of strife' are hushed, how much we keep in our prayers the innocent victims of such wicked inhumanity. It is all we can do, as we are also reminded to be ever thankful for so many blessings.

On Sunday 28th of this month and for both Temple Ewell and Lydden there is to be a very special service of Rededication and Thanksgiving for the baptism of our children, especially over the last five years (although of course, children a little older are most welcome too). The service is at 3.00 p.m. followed by a super family tea and I hope many will feel moved to be there.

Gift Day is earlier this year and on Saturday 6th (9.00 a.m. – 1.00 p.m.) I hope to be sitting on the seat by Lorna's. Thank you in advance for the support you always kindly give. Fr. Paul

Sunday Club

Everyone enjoyed the outing to Folkestone (by Bus!) and the sand park. We look forward to returning to Sunday Club on September 14th.

Rededication of Baptism

All children, parents and godparents are invited to a short service and tea on Sunday 28th September at 3pm in church. We would love to meet all the babies who have now grown up so much and some of whom will have started school. Invitations will be sent to all on the Baptismal Roll but everyone is invited who would care to join us. It would be much appreciated if you could let Margaret or Jenny know if you are coming for catering purposes. Thank you and we look forward to seeing you. Jenny 824280 Margaret 820615

Temple Ewell and District Produce Association

The summer show on Sat 19th July was a great success. We had lots of entries and the show tables were full of vegetables, flowers and cookery. We would like to thank our members and friends who showed their support on the day. We hope to see you all again on Saturday the 20th September.

INDEPENDENCE

King James VI of Scotland thought it would be a cracking idea for Scotland to have union with England and hey presto, he became king of both. The Scots are about to make the decision as to whether again to become independent. Independence always comes at a price and the trouble is that often the cost is not realised until after the event.

The Bible story of Adam gives us great insight. People were made to be in union with their creator. They have complete free will to come or to go. Upon choosing independence, the full impact of separation becomes apparent.

Jesus told a story about the son getting an early inheritance and gaining his independence. This results in his isolation and bankruptcy. Fortunately the Father restored the union with his son.

The result of the Scottish vote has yet to be decided but in God's Kingdom we are much better off with union rather than isolation.

"If anyone is in union with Christ, he is a new creation; the old life has gone, the new life has come." (2 Corinthians ch.5.)

Wednesday Willows

We have been very busy during the summer. We have been to the Circus in Folkestone, had a barbecue and a paddle at Joss Bay beach, tenpin bowling at Bugsys, a disco in the top hall and dressed as pirates in Deal Carnival with chips on the way home. We are looking forward to our skittles and chips at The Fox and our trip to Chessington in September. We meet in the Lower hall every Wednesday 7-9. If you fancy joining us for coffee you would be very welcome. Marilyn and Trish

We have been to Joss Bay for a BBQ. It was really funny when Yvonne fell through the chair and got stuck!

We have another BBQ coming up, a trip to Thorpe Park and our favourite Camber Sands for a weekend! On Saturday September 27th we will be holding a tea afternoon - all proceeds to MacMillan nurses. There will be lots of stalls, hope to see you there. Sophie

Joan Holliman 17.9.1929 - 12.08.2014

As some of you may know, Joan Holliman was in Kearsney Manor Nursing Home. On Tuesday the 15th July a tea party was held at the home for Joan and friends in the garden. A lovely afternoon was had by all.

Sadly Joan died at Kearsney Manor in August. She will be missed by her many friends including Youth Club. She supported everything we did and was very well thought of by the young people.

KCC and DDC Councillor

It seems only a few weeks ago we were having to endure the results of heavy rain and at the time of writing we are basking in glorious sunshine, hopefully we will have a few more weeks of this wonderful weather.

At the start of this Summer the Pensions Act 2014 came into being. This implements a new system of single tier state pension, which replaces the existing state pension. The new system will affect only men born on or after 6 April 1951 and women born after the 6 April 1953. Therefore anyone who has reached state pension age on or before the 5 April 2016 will remain on the current system and will not be affected by the change, even if they have opted to defer drawing their state benefit. The state pension age will rise now to the age of 67 from 2028. As future generations are predicted to have a better longevity, then there will be regular reviews with a view to increasing the pension age so that in the 2030s (only 15 years away) one would expect the retirement age to be 68 and the age of 69 by the 2040s.

The first pension review will take place in the next Parliament and will report by 7 May 2017, with each future report being published within 6 six years of its predecessor.

There will be a new Bereavement Support Payment to replace existing Bereavement Payments.

For more information about the Pensions Act 2014 visit www.gov.uk/government/collections/pensions-bill.

Changes to Maternity Allowance means that if your baby is due on or after the 27 July 2014 and you help your partner run their own business, you may be able to claim a new lower rate of Maternity Allowance for 14 weeks. To qualify you must not be eligible for Statutory Maternity Pay or the higher amount Maternity Allowance for the same pregnancy.

In addition for at least 26 of the 66 weeks before your baby is due you must:-

- 1) be married or in a civil partnership with someone who is self employed.
- 2) not be employed or self employed yourself.
- 3) take part in the business of your partner, spouse, civil partner.
- 4) not be paid for the work you do for the business.

For you or your partner to qualify, your spouse/civil partner must be registered as self employed with HMRC and should pay a class 2 National Insurance.

The Child Support Agency (CSA), stopped taking on new claims for child maintenance as from 30th June 2014. From 1st July 2014 this has been replaced by Child Maintenance Options. Effectively this new system will encourage parents to agree maintenance payments, only using the service should they not be able to agree maintenance payments. However the parents will be charged a fee for this service should the CMO be required to mediate. Though one parent may be exempted the fees if they are able to evidence, historically, domestic abuse. To evidence this abuse they should be able to provide police reference numbers as a result of previous incidents or social service reports.

On 13 June The Consumer Contracts Regulations came into force, this extends the amount of time consumers have to return goods that have been "ordered at distance," from seven working days to fourteen calendar days. This applies only to contracts made in the EU. It will not apply to non EU countries.

Kent County and Dover District Councillor Geoffrey Lymer

TRAVEL ODE

Trees to the left of me, trees to the right
Green, yellow, brown to red turning bright
To Boston, we're coming again
Hello, New England, don't you dare rain!

A tapestry of colours enveloping us, oh wow!
The Fall of New England - the sight before us now
White steepled churches, clapboard houses dotted here and there
Successors of every Pilgrim Father settling with care.

One can only imagine such a sight
Leaves of different colours turning bright
Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Maine
Not forgetting New Hampshire - getting there by train.

Cameras a'clicking - meeting new folk
Discussing the changes in England - the Old one, the New Clean air, no litter, pride in their town
Willing to welcome us, to show us around.

The villages, towns and cities bustling with life
"Where do you come from?" asks the man and his wife
Curious about England, the one that is old
The tales we can relate, the very bold.

This is probably the shortest travelogue you will ever read
I just needed you to share The Fall of New England with me
The tapestry of leaves and life surrounding all and the few
Green, yellow, gold, red of every hue.

Temple Ewell Parish Council

Speed Watch - The Parish Council is considering introducing Speed Watch, a community based education-centered initiative that enables concerned citizens to make a significant contribution to improving the safety of their roads and the quality of local life by helping to reduce vehicle speeds without penalising drivers.

The scheme is committed to reducing vehicle speeds, it is not about enforcement and prosecution. Guy Rollinson, Kent Police's Speed watch Co-ordinator explained to the parish council "education is proven to be far more effective than enforcement and tickets. Last year in Kent, the police detected over 70,000 speeding offences. And that's only what they detected. Traffic speeds are a problem across the county and we're confident our 600 Speed watch volunteers can help tackle it through education".

Mr Rollinson explained that to reduce the speeds in Temple Ewell a small group of residents (ideally three, no less than two), will stand in a pre-approved, safe location (possibly a drive-way) with a speed indication sign. Passing cars travelling at 35mph or more in a 30 zone or 46mph or more in a 40 zone will have their details noted by the volunteers: registration plate, make, model and colour of the vehicle, as well as the date, time and location. These details are given to Kent Police who then issue warning letters to the drivers. Repeat offenders will be prosecuted. Drivers who question why volunteers are scribbling down their car's details will be presented with a notice explaining that Speed watch is education-based and not about enforcement, run by volunteers.

Speed watch provides the intelligence required to make Kent Highways assess our roads if it is proven that there is a problem with speeds in the village. Mr Rollinson went on to explain how effective Speed watch has been. Of the 6,800 speeding vehicles recorded by speed watch volunteers in 2013 (there have been 15,700 this year already!), 600 warning letter were generated (some discretion and 'grace' is applied). Of those letters only 280 were second offenders and just 22 were third detection letters.

If you are interested in becoming a Speed watch volunteer please e-mail the Clerk at: coulsonwright@aol.com for further details.

The full Parish Council meets on the last Tuesday of the month (excluding August & December) at 7.15pm at the Temple Ewell Baptist Church Hall on the corner of the High Street and London Road. Parishioners are most welcome to attend and contribute to meetings.

The agenda and minutes are displayed on the Parish Council notice board by the village shop, Southdown Stores, and on the Parish Council website.

SPECIALISTS IN HORSE MENAGES

Community comes together to raise funds for the church

In July Temple Ewell joined together in a weekend of fundraising activities to raise money for their lovely old church, St Peter & St Pauls. Woodville Hall played host to the second annual Lounge on the Lawn on the Saturday evening. This is a music festival and picnic in the garden. Music was provided by local musicians, the Casual Tees and up and coming songstress Sophia Lyons. It almost seemed the whole village was there.

Sunday was the first Trash or Treasure Trail. The rain held off and 40 houses took part selling their wares from drives, garages or at the side of the road.

The final event was a Strawberry Tea held in the beautiful garden of Miss Parkin.

A perfect end to a busy week-end.

Brownies

100 year celebrations - in July we invited Eythorne Brownies and Rainbows to join us at Folkestone Sports Centre where we all had great fun and it was awesome going fast down the ski slope in the raft toboggans. We had goes together and on our own lots of times.

At the end of term we went over to visit Eythorne Brownies. They invited us to a campfire. We played games and went on a scavenger hunt and made a collage. We sang songs round a camp fire, had sausages and sweetcorn to eat and toasted marshmallows. Erin, Jessie, Francesca, Millie Brownies re-start on Friday 12th September at 6pm in Temple Ewell Baptist Chapel.

Kent Wildlife Trust

Lydden and Temple Ewell Nature Reserves need volunteers to help manage the chalk downland.

Anyone who is interested in helping on a Tuesday 9.30am - 3pm or on a Sunday please call Pete Forest 07889 274535 or Bob Newington 0304 827138. Tuesday tasks are weekly, starting in September with our friendly group. Sunday tasks are monthly, the first one being on September 21st, with baked potatoes for lunch.

W.I.

We enjoyed a strawberry tea at our July meeting and then we had a lighthearted quiz. Many of our members enjoyed a trip to Hole Park, near Rolvenden. We will be having a Turkish themed evening on 1st November, further details next month.

Our next meeting will be on 11th September, when we will welcome Judi Knight giving us a talk entitled "Eking out the Ration". Visitors are welcome.

Dear Newsletter

I would like to thank the Parish Council for creating what could be a haven of tranquility, with lovely rustic benches, in the middle of Dragon Wood. Unfortunately, certain uncaring people with dogs, as opposed to genuine dog owners, have decided that this is a good place to sit and watch their dogs do their business all around the seats, leaving it behind for the enjoyment of all and, no doubt, passing that mysterious red bin with a picture of a dog on it on their way home!

I suppose we should be thankful that the depositors of the inevitable Coke cans and McDonalds cartons cannot reach this spot from their car windows!

R Dale

Long term resident

Dear Editor

I have attended several Parish Council Meetings during the last year as an observer and it is a pity and disappointing that there are now only six serving councillors, where there should be twelve.

How is it that so few members of the community are interested in how our village is run? It would appear that everyone is satisfied with the work done on our behalf by these six dedicated people, or perhaps we just don't care - until something crops up that could affect us.

There must be some people who would like, at least, to have a say in how the Council's £23,000 precept is spent and get an insight in the running of the village.

I understand there will be council elections next year - why not give it a try? I did and found it very rewarding.

Congratulations to the "stalwart six" and their clerk for obtaining grants to improve Dragon Wood and the memorial stone at Players' Corner.

Betty Pilcher

Editor's note - anyone who is spurred on to volunteer, after reading Betty's letter, may not realise that you can in fact join the council at any time if there are vacancies - you don't need to wait for the elections next year - see page 29.

Dear Newsletter Readers

I'm trying to trace someone from Temple Ewell while researching my family history. I don't have much to go on. I'm looking for a May and Jack (?) who may have lived at Brookside around the 1920/30s or it could have been as late as the 60s. I'm hoping to find their surnames. Yes, I am clutching at straws but I hope someone can help.

Buses, Brushes, Bobbies and Bleach - On Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday evening, the Year 6 children performed a play to their Parents called "Buses, Brushes, Bobbies and Bleach". It was their final production before leaving for their Secondary Schools. The rest of the school watched their dress rehearsal and it was really good with several of the girls and boys extremely confident in acting out their scenes.

The songs were really catchy too; with the audience particularly enjoying their final song which made some of the children in the school cry during rehearsals. Even during the evening performance several Parents were holding back the tears! There were many enjoyable scenes throughout the play, the highlight for several being the fireman and policemen scene, where they were nervous about meeting the infants. Another pupil said, "I liked seeing Angel being sick, Matthew wetting his pants and some of the boys wearing dresses!"

Abbie, a year 6 pupil said, "My favourite scene was the school scene, it was really easy for the audience to follow and they laughed at all the amusing pieces in the sketch."

We will miss the Year 6 children but we know we have them as friends forever and may see them again in and around the village. Year 5 children in Oaks
