Hello Everyone

Since last month I have moved house so, for those of you who currently post items through my door, please note the new address below. Having been at our previous address for thirteen years I had forgotten how exhausting moving is. The worst is behind us now, although still a lot to do to do in the new place.

Don't forget there is no Newsletter next month, so the next deadline date is 15th August for the September issue.

We'll be sending out renewal notices to advertisers at the beginning of August

Have a lovely summer and I'll see you again in September!

We welcome all contributions to the content of the Newsletter, but please remember that the deadline date is 8pm on the 15th of the month.

NOTE: You should be aware that articles are also published on the website www.tenews.co.uk - please inform us if you want any part of your article withheld from that particular medium.

Many thanks to all who have contributed to the Christian Aid collection this year which was for poor families around the world, to help them escape from grinding poverty and providing them with a future.

For example, an Ethiopian woman was given a cow to help feed her family. This meant she could grow her tea on her farm with renewed vigour. In her words: "When I got my cow I felt like a conquering hero returning from war... It was the day I was given a chance."

The total sum collected in Temple Ewell was £575.43p. Again, a big thank you to all who contributed to this worthy cause.

Youth Club

Our recent trip to Thorpe Park was enjoyed by all. The weather was great and the queues weren't too long. We are hoping our Quiz Night on the 19th is well supported, as we are fundraising for our next trip to Camber.

We are looking forward to our summer B. B. Q's at Joss Bay.
More news next month

Willows

We enjoyed our recent "mystery tour" outing when we ended up in Broadstairs - we walked around the jetty and Ben tried to throw Becky onto the sand! We all had coffee or hot chocolate in a cafe and chips on the bus in the way home.

At the time of writing we are looking forward to a June trip to Wingham Wildlife Park, also to another visit to The Fox for skittles and chips.

Sophie

Temple Ewell & District Produce Association

Our Summer Show is on Saturday the 18th of July in the Village Hall. We look forward to seeing you all there.

It would be nice to see a few new names on the show benches this show, with so many flowers in gardens and to help with staging or you can call me on 824787 with any query you might have.

We are hoping to have some plants, jams and other things on our sales table. So keep this Saturday afternoon free and come to the Village Hall and meet your old friends and some new ones too. I look forward to seeing you there.

Friday Club

Friday Club has been quiet of late due to some being on holiday or unwell.

We have had a few new members so our numbers are slowly increasing again, welcome to you all.

We will have had a Strawberry Tea on the 12th June, which is always a hit. Kentish strawberries are really sweet at this time of year.

Get well wishes go to Renate, Frank & Barbara Herbert, John (Wizzie), Pam who will have her operation soon and Jean Matcham, who has had surgery on her eyes. Get well soon we miss you.

That's it for this month. The longest day has now passed, so summer will soon be over and we shall be looking forward to Christmas.

Take care,
regards Yvonne

Brownies

This term, from March, we all planted sunflower seeds and runner beans in pots and took them home to grow for the Flower Show competition. We also planted a pot with wild flower seeds at the Baptist Church.

We have done our Brownie Skills badge, which meant doing lots of things like tying knots, packing a suitcase, sewing on a button, compass work and knowing how to eat healthily.

We have been on walks around the village, the woods and the hills, looking at flowers, birds and animals.

Erin and Nicole

This month the girls are going to Gilwell Scout Adventure Park. In July three girls will be going to a W.O.W Camp in tents near Canterbury and later in the month to a Brownie Crystal Maze Adventure with lots of other brownies.

Strolling players on the Downs with Smuggling show

The beautiful, atmospheric ancient church of St Mary in Lydden will be visited by Sabotage Theatre Company on Friday 7th August, to perform their new smuggling play Owlers by Zoe Hinks, as part of the Up on the Downs Big Summer Festival.

Weaving local history and folklore, the story is inspired by a series of real events which led to the demise of the infamous Aldington Gang of smugglers, otherwise known as the Blues, when what started as a routine landing of contraband at Dover in 1826 ends in disaster. It follows the extraordinary lives of ordinary people when the world was turned upside down; Lighthouse Sisters, cross-dressing tub boys and the outlawed vicar who harboured contraband in his church. Owlers was piloted last year as part of JAM on the Marsh festival where it sold out. Lydden will be the company's penultimate performance in an unusual tour across Sussex and Kent where historical buildings and forest clearings have been their theatres.

"Creatively brilliant" Edward Armitage, Artistic Director of J.A.M.

Sabotage Theatre brings original rural theatre to places of natural beauty and historical significance. The company has a very strong environmental ethos and the sets and costumes are made from recycled/reclaimed materials. 'Owlers', which is an old Kentish word for 'smugglers', was developed using folklore and true stories surrounding the arrest of the notorious gang leader, George Ransley.

"I cried at the end, it was beautiful" Gail Duff, founder of TRADS Folk Art

These special open air performances are part of a wider horse drawn tour visiting rural and isolated places in Sussex and Kent. For full details please check www.sabotagetheatre.com

Are you looking for a good school?

We offer a small rural school with a good team of professionals and well behaved children. Children are good at caring for each other, learning is fun and each child is developed as an individual. We aim to equip children with essential skills that they can apply throughout their life.

OFSTED 2011 confirmed our ability to differentiate learning well for both age and ability. 'Pupils continue to make good progress through the school so that their attainment by the time they move to secondary school is generally above average'.

'There is a very positive engagement with parents and carers, with many commenting specifically on how well their child settled and is progressing'.

We have 'Share a class' sessions six times a year, where parents are invited in to learn alongside their children.

Gift Day - Saturday 5th September 9.00 a.m. – 1.00 p.m.

Sitting in silence in the Benedictine Abbey at Minster, it takes a little time to enter into the stillness of this place where the priests of the local Chapter of the Society of the Holy Cross (SSC) to which I belong have been welcomed for the day by the Guest Sister. In many ways it is a precious time I certainly need and am privileged to have, but how much any notion of stillness and need for it is increasingly missing in many lives. Indeed, it seems that even the few opportunities we do have can be subjected to the strange need to 'plug in' things in our ears and fill our heads with sound. Even swimming the other day, was I really overtaken by a swimmer wearing waterproof headphones?..... I think I was!

It's just a thought and I have no doubt there are many exceptions, but I do wonder if so much lack of stillness these days has become reflected in ways which obscure the needs of others around us, even the insensitivity of the aggressive self focussed manner of much driving a simple example. From another angle following the recent Kent earthquake were not the social media 'mock scenes' of devastation and chaos (overturned wheelie bins and garden furniture and a spilled cup of tea) with the slogan 'we will rebuild' a little insensitive when thousands had so recently lost their lives in Nepal and as poor people struggle to rebuild their lives, or am I being ridiculously oversensitive? Anyway, I suppose what I am trying to suggest is that 'being still' is a gift which could have so many and varied positive ramifications for us and subsequently for those around us. Of course, above all, in the peace of Minster Abbey the well known 4,000 year old Psalm 46 v. 10 comes to mind – 'Be still and know that I am God'!

Fr. Paul

PS.....I'm sure you will agree that our Temple Ewell church is a cherished and beautiful part of our village. However, it will not stay in its present condition forever without some love. That's why some friends, who are not religious, have got together to run a scheme to keep the church as a useable building for the village community for the future. Following on is some information about what these friends are doing.....

Friends of Temple Ewell Church

Please join our association of Friends and help to maintain the walls, roof and fabric of our very old and beautiful church. It is part of our heritage, an historic landmark and is a vital part of our village.

Successive generations have cared for this listed building and the cost of maintenance must be met by raising funds locally. The Church has to be inspected every five years by an architect who recommends spending what he/she considers necessary. The need for repairs may also arise due to the effects of unforeseen events, such as storm damage and subsidence.

Any funds generated would allow this lovely building to be a feature of our village and be used in creative ways for village life.

The Friends help by attracting members who provide funds, however small, for the upkeep of the Church. Items such as the roof, the tower and the outside walls are difficult and expensive to repair and maintain. None of the funds would be used for religious purposes.

Details of what has been done will be circulated as a news item, which will be found on facebook – Temple Ewell Parish Church (SSC) - Dover, Kent - Facebook and in the Temple Ewell Newsletter.

Please help with a donation, however small. Please see standing order form on page 17.

Thank you, Dave Spink (Friends' helper)

IDENTITY

I don't like myself! I wish that I was someone else! What is it that we want changed? It may be something to do with our appearance; our mental ability or lack of it? Our moral character, perhaps we do not think that we are very nice! Few of us would not change something about ourselves if there was a magic button which we could press.

Who am I? How do I define myself? Who is the real person behind the reflection I see in the mirror? A cosmetic surgeon can change our appearance, deed poll can change our name, we can move address and have different employment but the real me always comes along as well. Can we be defined by our genetic make up which runs through us like lettering in a stick of rock?

A friend of mine was told, for the first time, on his wedding day that he was adopted as a baby. He was not the person that he had always thought he was. What a dreadful shock that must have been. True identity is the essence of who we are. To know the identity of someone else, not just their physical appearance, then we need to know them really well.

The existence of a person called Jesus is historically well attested and generally accepted. The big question is not whether he existed but who was he? The muslims accept him as a prophet. Jesus asked his disciple Peter, "Who do people say that I am?" After that Jesus asked Peter, "Who do you say that I am?" Identity is important. What answer do we give to this question? Peter's answer was "YOU ARE CHRIST, THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD".

A Barn-storming Night at the Hall

Well! If you didn't come along, what a night you missed! It has been a few years since we had a Barn Dance and many of us were unsure if we would be able to keep up, but goodness didn't we all do well. The Hoodeners did not disappoint. The group consisted of 12 musicians, one of whom instructed, called, organised, encouraged and dragged as many as possible onto the dance floor to perform some highly complex dance steps. We started early in the evening to chassay, promenade and the occasional double-slip. Laughter and giggles permeated around the hall, including the teenagers, whilst accordians, violins, recorders and various percussion instruments rythmically echoed in our ears.

Exhausted after four dances, we broke for a Cheese and Pate supper and topped up at the bar (much needed, of course!). The excellent raffle was called and off we went again rehearsing stars, in and out and traditionally a do-si-do. By now we were getting pretty good and the merriment of The Hoodeners continued to thrill the lively dancers.

It was a vibrant evening with first class entertainment. Our grateful thanks to all of you who supported the Newsletter in this fund raising venture and I am sure, like me, look forward to the next Barn Dance.

Editor's Note

I would like to thank the lady that left a message on my answering machine to say that the number we had listed on the back cover for Buckland Hospital has been changed.

This has now been rectified and we're very grateful to her for letting us know as we aim to always have the correct information on that page.

Dear Villagers

On 1st June I attended a meeting in London titled "The EU and the Future of Britain" which was hosted by the Bruges Group. The speakers were the Rt. Hon. John Redwood MP, Tim Aker UKIP MEP and former PPC for Thurrock (was 900 votes short) and Peter Osborne who is Associate Editor of The Spectator.

This was very enlightening and was well attended. After the lectures there was a Q&A session, drinks and nibbles. There was a good debate but unfortunately I could not stay until the end as I had to leave to get a train.

As I have joined the Bruges Group (it only costs £30 a year), I have been invited to their next meeting at the House of Commons entitled "The Future of the Euro" on 18th June. The address will be given by Professor Bernd Lucke MEP, founder and leader of the Alternative for Germany which is a political party which opposes the Euro. This should be a fascinating experience.

UKIP and the "Out" campaign would like to work with anyone who wants independence to work together giving out a positive message about Britain governing itself. If anyone is interested in this, please look up UKIP.org, www.bruagesgroup.com or <http://www.betteroffout.net/>.

Kind regards
Mrs Sarah Chivers

Temple Ewell W.I.

We were treated to a beautiful display of quilts and patchwork which had been made by Thelma, one of our talented members. Thelma told us the history behind the many designs and patterns which she had included in her talk, a very enjoyable talk by an excellent needlewoman.

We followed this with refreshments - strawberries, cream and shortbread.

Betty is hosting a cream tea on Tuesday 4th August 2-30-4-30pm £2-50 at 18 Templar Road. Please let Betty know if you are able to join us 01304330706.

We do not meet in August but are running an outing to Brighton on Thursday 13th August. Anyone who's interested in joining us should contact Jan on 01304 33105 / 07773476563 or Anne on 01304 827138.

Our next meeting is on September 10th when we will be celebrating the centenary of the W.I.

Temple Ewell Parish Council

The full Parish Council meets on the last Tuesday of the month (excluding August & December) at 7.15pm at the Temple Ewell Baptist Church Hall on the corner of the High Street and London Road.

Parishioners are most welcome to attend and contribute to meetings. The agenda and minutes are displayed on the Parish Council notice board by Southdown Stores and on the Council website.

Kearsney Parks Consultation

Since the last project update, we have been busy listening to ideas and suggestions for the parks, getting our design team started, and carrying out more historical research. Thanks to everyone that took part in the activity day in April or responded online. If you would like to see what everyone told us, a summary can be found here: www.kearsney-parks.co.uk/projectdocuments. We have been meeting local schools and other community organisations to see how they could be involved in the project and how they would like to use the parks. We have also been talking to other organisations who have delivered similar Heritage Lottery Fund projects to learn about what worked well and what could have been improved. All this information will help to shape the park improvement plans and help us to develop ideas for activities.

We have appointed our landscape architects, architects and other specialists and they are now busy assessing the parks, reviewing background information and studying the consultation results. They will shortly start to develop proposals and they should be ready to share with you in early July – more information to follow in due course.

We have also been trying to uncover more historical information. The Kent Gardens Trust have already carried out some excellent research and we have found more information in archives in Kent, Lincolnshire and even Cumbria. Volunteers are busy researching the British Newspaper Archive for interesting news stories about the parks and volunteer archaeologists will also be carrying out a small exploratory dig in the car park of Kearsney Abbey this weekend. We hope the dig will tell us more about the grand country house that used to stand on the site. Our heritage experts have been busy looking into the history of Kearsney Abbey and Russell Gardens and we would like to share their findings, along with some ideas about how the parks could be restored and improved.

Come along to view a range of suggestions, talk with the project team, have your say and help shape the project:

6pm to 8pm on Wednesday 1 July at St Peter and St Paul's Church in River
2pm to 5pm on Thursday 2 July in Russell Gardens
11am to 2pm on Saturday 4 July in Kearsney Abbey
9am to 11am on Monday 6 July in Kearsney Abbey
Sunday 12 July at River Fete

We will have historic plans and images, ideas for restoring and improving the parks, as well as a self-guided historic photo trail – pick up a map at the consultation events. The same information will be available at all the events and you can drop in at any time. Parking is limited so please walk, cycle or use public transport if you can.

If you can't make the consultation events, everything will be available on our website from early July. If you have any questions in the meantime please email community@dover.gov.uk

KCC Councillor for Dover West

Well here we are approaching the Summer holiday period. Your holiday is all arranged. Many of you will be flying to your holiday destination. You arrive at your resort and decide that you will hire a small car, whilst there, in order to explore the area.

In the past it has been fairly straight forward. You would take your paper and your card driving licence. The reasons for the two is the paper licence evidences your licence is clean or that you may have an endorsement or two.

This would allow a decision as to whether the car hire company would risk loaning a car to you, but more to the point, would determine how much your car hire insurance would be for the period of the rental. The plastic card part of the licence would be to comply with EU regulations for uniformity of documentation.

But this has all changed, for the DVLA has scrapped the paper part of your licence, so if you apply for a licence now you will only receive the European acknowledged plastic card licence. If you still hold the paper licence too, the DVLA advise that you destroy it immediately. But, before you do, read on....

So you are abroad on holiday and in the car hire rental reception in the process of hiring a little car, so how do you prove you have a clean licence or one or more endorsements, for you have scrapped your paper licence which would have had that information. Well the car hire company will still need to check the up to date information regarding your driving history. They will need to contact the DVLA direct, but they will have to provide a code that you will have supplied to them. That code indicates to the DVLA that you consent to the DVLA divulging your personal data to the hire company.

So how do you acquire that code? To obtain your 'licence check code' you will have to know your National Insurance number, so remember to make a note of this before going abroad. You will need also your driver licence number and your post code. The licence check code will be made of 8 characters comprising numbers and upper and lower code letters, which you will then pass to the car rental company. This code you intend to apply for, can be no longer than 72 hours before the transaction. So if longer than 72 hours, you will have to apply to the DVLA all over again, so bear this in mind if you are travelling to other time zones where your flight may have been delayed.

To obtain your code go to gov.uk/view-driving-licence alternatively telephone 03000 083 0013. Even if your car hire was arranged several months ago before taking your holiday, in Britain the rental company is legally obliged to follow the implementation of these rules as from this week, however abroad you may still be able to use your paper licence.

So my advice is do not destroy your paper licence, but take it abroad with you, for it will make hiring a car a little easier. But, if you have destroyed your paper licence already and you forgot to obtain your 'licence check code' prior to travelling abroad, not all is lost. With your consent, the rental company may contact DVLA on your behalf, but the administration fee and cost of an international call to the DVLA could even cost you more than the car rental.

County Councillor Dover West

PERHAPS ANOTHER DAY

Tut, the oven needs cleaning
Then, there's that pile of ironing to do
Which job shall I do first?

I know, I'll have a rest.

Tut, the bathroom looks a bit messy
Tut, I could have sworn I dusted yesterday
Which job shall I do first?

There y'go, I'll have a coffee before that rest.
Mmmm, my bedroom could do with a sort out

And my bracelets are all tangled up
Which job shall I do first?

Got it, I'll read the paper with the coffee before that rest.

Oh tsssh, those curtains need a wash
And I can see some weeds out there
Which job shall I do first?
Hmmm, I'll make a list!

ANNE COX

Hark, hark, there sings the lark
It flies away from view
And nestles in another place
Before the morning dew

Hark, hark, there sings the lark
On chimney pot it stands
From rooftop high into the sky
It soars above the land

Hark, hark, there sings the lark
To welcome in the day
For all around to work are bound
And children out to play

Hark, hark, there sings the lark
As summer sun beats down
And cattle chewing of the cud
Away from road and town

Hark, hark, there sings the lark
So once again it's here
To brighten up another day
Throughout the summer of the year
